Albion, N. Y.
New York,
Dear Sir:

Allow me to congratulate you on the article you have written in regard to the Negro Murder that has so frequently been committed on the spotted Southern gentleman's skin. It encourages me to think our fractious civilization is not so bad. Damages were not so important as that you such a man should as that which murdered a child. The sword of justice shall fall with no uncertain aim on the cowardly murderers who participated in and encouraged the outrage & the shells of the world's great slavery. But the
