Judge William L. Taft
Dear Sir

New York, Aug. 3, 1893

Yours of the 1st is at hand and we thank you for the concern of business outlook.
The paper for August has which we pretty expect here yesterday is not made and will not reach NY until Tuesday next. It will be put on the press immediately and will be ready in a very few days.

I am much interested by what you say regarding the financial and business outlook and would to thank you for the spirit that prompted the expression. I do not myself understand the situation as you do and shall certainly take such good advice to heart.

Again thanking you for your kindness and Yours truly

Wm. L. Taft
