I think your father is right about not issuing a paper edition of Sunset Sea until the cloth has had at least a few weeks sale.

We will make "du" entry with the queen of hearts' a book of about 130 pages with one hundred and fifty words to the page and 20000 words will be as long as it should be, I think.

If you will send us a little of the copy we will have a few pages set and printed with the borders already made and see how we like them. We have ordered quite a few orders for it and if it can be finished before Nov. 1st I should like to see it done.

Send me the drawings as fast as ready I want to try a house here on a few of them.

Sincerely

Merrill & Baker
