

Thomaston, Me.

Aug. 8th 1893.

Judge Albin George,
Mayville N.Y.
Dear Sir,

The account of an outing with the "Queen of Hearts" found a most sympathetic reader in me and the charm of it is as fresh today as when "the Cosmopolitan" brought me that delight nearly two years ago. I, too, like to wander far from the maddening crowd in my angling outings, and as I can spend the months of Sept & Oct of this year in the region around Lake Michigan, I should take it as a most generous favor if you can give me practical directions from reaching the spots you found so delightful, or some other offering equal spots and solitude.

As my "Queen of Hearts" must remain at home with the children I shall have to depend entirely upon the angling and the charms of the unfrequented woods.

for my pleasure, and I would beg therefore that you consider only the quality of these in considering what recommendations you can kindly make to me.

In return for your courtesy I can recommend some good trout-fishing in the backwoods of Maine where generally in the month of June one may have the woods & waters all to oneself, or nearly so, and excellent sport.

May I not hope you can spare a few minutes of your busy pen to put me in the way of the much coveted pleasure for which I have always hoped since reading your charming article?

Yours very sincerely

E. P. George.