My dear Eddie

I hope to soon be through with my work here, and if I can arrange it so as to spend two days in the train home instead of a night and a day, I will stop over with you a day. I have an engagement at Orange, - a long standing engagement, which will prevent my prolonging my stay with you.

And perhaps by this time you also have made arrangements which will make even this short visit more convenient to you. Will you kindly write to me immediately - about that.

And if you know of any Express train that fits nicely into what I want to do, will you please let me know. I am going to New York instead of Philadelphia, and prefer the New York Central. I will get a time table as soon as I have time to go to the city. I should be sorry to pass so near you without giving you at least a greeting, and hope I may not be detained here so long as to necessitate my rushing past you. The Judges of the Vice Auto Dept. hope to finish their work and be discharged very soon, but at the last moment some complication may arise to detain us.

I was so glad to receive your letter with its kind invitation, - but I have been so very busy with the examination of Engraves that I have not had time to write you before. Remember me warmly to your father and mother, I hope you are all well.

Sincerely yours

Emily Sartain.

There is no doubt she can easily make Orange, N. J. by day train from here
