Mr. Torrey,

Mayfield, N.Y.

My dear Sir

Will you kindly oblige one of your interested readers, by sending an autograph letter either as an acknowledgment of my request, or a few opinions as to whether autograph collecting is commendable!

Kindly favor me with a reply as it will greatly please.

Yours Very Resp.

Dear Sir:

The burden of replying to ~~letters~~ seekers for autographs has become so onerous to Judge Louque, whose moments are his only capital, that he has ^{for some persons} declined to furnish autographs except in the copies of Button's Inn, which is sent by mail with autograph inscription on receipt of $1.50.
