Dear Sir

Yours of 24 inst with receipt and statement, duly received, relating to the Secy. J. Miller Fund - I am greatly surprised and mortified at the seeming absolute indifference of people - the people of the north, to the monument proposed, as indicated by your statement -

The proceeding contemplated, carries with it large possibilities; Success in such an effort, would be educational in a broad way, north as well as south - I hoped it would have substantiated backing, in numbers especially, as well as in amount of contribution, and will be truly sorry if it should fail - Better hold fast, continuing the efforts still longer.

I had missed the Nylander Note in two issues - assumed the writer was sick - The Inter Ocean, will make a great sad mistake, if it rules out those notes in which so many are interested, which are growing in interest.

They had much better retrench by taking three or four columns from the entire page and more devoted ^{each day} to the horse-racing interest - a great surprise to me; They can spare,

with less damage to the paper, the meager reports of sermons containing sixteenth century and beyond ideas, which in the main, retard progress in this progressing age, (not meaning to include Pro. Strong in this) I believe, the readers of that paper will enter a protest. I know there will be some protesting.

Yours Sincerely

Chas. H. Williams
