Judge Albert W. Sawyer
Dear Sir,

New York, Aug. 31, 1892

In express you today prepaid 3 copies of "Out of the Smuck Sea" and will send you bound copies soon as ready on Monday next.

I hope the manufacture of the book will please you as well as it does me. Candidly I think it will compare very favorably with any of your other works except "Queen of Hearts" which we propose making a new gen.

The type page of Smuck Sea, I think, is all that could be desired and the illustration reflect great credit on Miss Almer's work.

We would like any suggestions you may see to special editorial copies you desire.

Sincerely,

Merrill Baker
