SPECIAL EXAMINATION
DIVISION.

Department of the Interior,

BUREAU OF PENSIONS,

Augusta Me. 8/21, 1893

Dear Judge,

I enclose the "Itinerary" of 1857.
This is all I ever had. I came across it in a pension case, I suppose this was all that was required in that particular case as it covered the service of the applicant.
I never saw anything like it in any other case.

I presume on application to the Adj. Gen. you can get the complete ^{history of the} journeyings of the Regt. - if you state the purpose for which it is wanted. And yet I don't know as you can - that is I don't know as he will detail a Clerk to do the Copying for you. - I am not acquainted with any Clerk in the Adj. G. - I think likely Fisher may be able to put you in the way of getting what you want as he knows many of the men in Adj. office.
I have been in the woods again. Got run down with the heat & worried like thunder with some old teeth was tortured by the "dentist" man & got some store teeth. Had the d-b's own time with my innards "Lip out" for the flesh & began to feel better as soon as I got them. - Trout & venison & partridge!!

It's agin the law to have the two letters in possession but they don't go agin the stomachs.

The deer are more abundant than ever and it is no sin to kill what one can eat - at any rate. every body does it, but there is no killing for the sake of slaughter.

I know a man whose garden has all been chewed up by deer. - Well the fishing was superb. I don't believe the like can be found anywhere - Larger trout can be found in other places, but one is not always sure of getting them, while here there are no blank days or even hours. There are no suckers, shiners, pickrel, bass, or perch.
There - no fish at all but just old Salvelinus fontinalis & his progeny. Perhaps it isn't a sport to throw a f. fly there. you know a trout is a mighty corn fish & he just makes things jingle -

Well I must stop talking fish & write my monthly report. Hope you are all well. suppose you will see the "white City" but we shall not - its too far & costs too much. Love to all

As ever
