

AMERICAN EXPRESS COMPANY,

Woodstock, Ill., Sept 1 1893

Dear Friend Irving
 Your kind favor
 of the 29th ult at hand for which please
 accept thanks -

I write
 S. D. Bennett at Richmond to ship up the I. O. of
 of descending B.S. notes
 present he will -

Yes I would like a
 yes sur to the hat City
 I will charge as what I can for it - When you send a few extra Copies - With a Miss

AMERICAN EXPRESS COMPANY,

2

Woodstock, Ills.,—

—189

The following is what I did with Mr P. Nixon
 at Chicago Sept 1, 93
 "Deafie,"

have taken the
 John Deer almost since its birth and have been a liberal patron
 of it otherwise —

Do not believe in Sunday papers — Sunday Jairs of Sunday Amusement —

Their influence is per-nicious to morals and lead to destruction —

The Babylonian notes in the

AMERICAN EXPRESS COMPANY,

Woodstock, Ills.,

____189

I.O. for the last six years has kept me a constant subscriber and many are the copies I have purchased at your Counter & sent for that delight circulate that kind of literature -

When President Harrison said he could not protect our Citizens in the South
I lost faith in him -

Your "Sage" owing to the pressure on our columns
we have at least for a period discontinued the

AMERICAN EXPRESS COMPANY,

4/

Woodstock, Ills., _____ 189

Bystander notes - I fear
 your Special Column is going wrong -
 I had copied the Tribune -
 In my judgment less policy & more patriotism
 would benefit alike the Indian Ocean - the party
 & the Nation -

Oh for a few more Tom Rees, McKimley & Jungs
 to straighten out the affairs of this Nation "

Yours truly

J. H. Apple