Friend George:

Your favor of Aug 31 this morn'g received. I have been in the mountains of Colorado, from May to Aug 1st when assigned to duty here, and did not see a Sat Inter O, all that time. As soon as I struck this place I went to a news office for an Inter O, Sat No, and to my surprise found the By-stander's notice were discontinued. I stopped the paper for I had been buying it since, for a long time just for the Notes and nothing else. I have been intending to write Judge Lougee for some time but have been very busy. I will immediately carry out my intention and learn what he has to say and then, if there seems any use I will write a communication for Inter O. Yes, it's policy, not principle.
 The politicians of either party are with Mr Lougee;
 but God is, and the heavens make a strong team.

Yours Fraternaly

J. P. Bennett.
