Dear Madam

It will be a great pleasure to me to exchange my paper for the issues of your husband's works as they appear. I have had the pleasure to read some of his stories and was most favorably impressed with them. I have not yet received his latest, but am looking forward to receiving it with pleasure. and I shall give it a careful reading. I remember very distinctly where you resided in our town.
I am Very Respectfully Yours
