My dear Sir

In studying the period of Discovery, before writing
"Out of the Sunset dead"

I became much interested in Prince John of Portugal - surnamed the Navigator. I have material for a very striking article. For so notable a personage, - for he was really the Discoverer of Discovery he has had small share of honor paid him, especially in this commemorative year.

Would you like such an article, with portraits from Major's life of Prince John.
