

Nov 3d 3

Editor's Letter
Cherry St
Boston

For several years I have been a subscriber to your paper and at length by the attorney General I considered "a Boston Note" which have appeared regularly in the paper, until within a few weeks I finally spent of the paper, but for quite a while I have seen nothing of What is the trouble? Has Judge been what is wrong? I know a good many people about the Court, who look at the Editor's name, more as a result of the paper's reputation, than for the article I don't say I shall discontinue my subscription but I do say without Judge's writing a valuable part of your paper is looking