LONG ISLAND HISTORICAL SOCIETY.
BROOKLYN, N.Y.

November 6, 1893.

Mr. Albion W. Tourgee,

Dear Sir,

We have in this library, credited as your gift, the "Genealogy of the Winegar Family". As this is a reference library with the genealogical department in constant use I do not see how the volume can be sent you. I will, however, gladly copy such extracts as you indicate, and send them to you.

Very truly yours.

E. Tuttle.

Gentlemen: when I made the deposit of the "Genealogy of the Worniger Family" with you, at the solicitation of one of your assistants, I feared that just such an occasion might arise and was assured by the librarian that I could have it for any reasonable period whenever I desired.

Since that time, I have indeed several people to put a number of such records in your library, liking the idea of giving special attention to such matters.

Of course, it is a very small matter, but none the less irritating because of its flavor of false representation. I can probably get the book after some delay by spending some money in advertising for it.

Yours, ^{very} respectfully,
H. W. Sawyer
