

Nov. 7, 1893.

Mr. Hon. Albion W. Tourgee,
My dear Sir:

I fear you will get out of patience about this matter of dates for Oak Park. This suburb has all the engagements of the city to take care of as well as its own and it is much more a society matter with its two clubs and numerous churches. But we must have all the people possible hear this lecture for neither with us nor with you it is a money making scheme primarily. I do not care whether we make a cent beyond the included dollars if only we can get the message heard. Now Dec. 5th is the Baptist Social Union of Chicago and some forty four best people go, and I note that my more graceful Nov. was too full. If you can make it Dec. 7, or the 12th, or even the 4th or 11th should those dates be possible for you I will at once announce it and hold that evening. Please send the cut for the handbills referred to me shall be glad to use it.

In much haste for my enemy

Yours
Francis Rowley
