My Dear Sir:- Replying to your favor of the 4th inst., I beg to say that I have set your article for an early month and shall hope to send it to you very soon. It has simply been pushed out by circumstances over which I had no control.

I shall be very glad to see some matter from you during the coming year. The magazine is always four or five months ahead and it is necessary for me to have articles a long way ahead before I can get the in.

I am,

Very truly yours,
