Hon Albion W Touhy
Mayville, N.Y.

Dear Judge: I am trying to devise means to raise money for our mission. The cross will hardly work as a screw-driver in this case. I have thought that a lecture course could be made to pay if we can get the lecturers. Will you give us an evening?

I know your time is money in the most literal sense, but it is in the interest of the poor people in this wretched locality that I ask, and as I ask without hesitation, feeling confident that you will help if you can. We can give you one of the best churches in the city in which to speak and will, of course, see that it costs you nothing except your time. Could you give us Dec 21st or 24th?

Please answer as soon
as possible.

Yours sincerely
Wm. Piner.
