

Nov. 25th 1893

Judge Albion W. Tourgee

Dear Sir -

Yours of Nov. 23rd

at hand. It is with very great pleasure that its contents are noted. We received your former communication, we felt sorry that we could not meet its requirements, but they were made so plain and so very just that it made us feel had it been in your power to make us an address at less cost than you mentioned in said letter you would have so done, your present letter is but proof of our faith.

Would the evening of Dec. 7th suit you, it would us exactly.

If so will you kindly state ~~to~~ by telegraph at our expense if this evening would not suit please name the evening that would suit you. You may
