Dear Judge:-I have been away from home most of the time since your last letter was received but now write to say that I will be pleased to have you send me the books we have been corresponding about, including an extra copy of "Letters To A King". I would rather have the autographs and take the chances on the bindings.

I will send you a check upon your informing me what the additional price will be for the extra book.

Yours very truly,

Dictated to L.

RECEIVED BY P.

TO THE VERY FRIENDS,

I will send you a check upon your bank account.

With regard to the book, I am sorry to hear that you have not had a chance to read it.

I would have been glad to have seen you at the book sale. I am sure you would have enjoyed it very much. I will be glad to hear from you again.

Yours truly,

WILSON W. WOODS
