Worthington's Magazine

Hartford, Conn., Dec. 4, 1893

Mrs. A. W. Tourgee,
Mayville, N. Y.

Dear Madam:-

In answer to yours of the 1st inst. we regret to say that we have more tail pieces on hand than we shall be able to use in the Magazine for a long time to come. We therefore do not feel like incurring additional expense for more at present, unless, indeed, they were furnished at a very low price, and we would not ask you to make any special concession in this respect.

If it would be any object we will make the price of the Magazine for 1894 to you $2.00, cash, this being the price the trade pays for each annual subscription.

Thanking you for your kind words for the Magazine, we remain

Yours very truly,

A.D. Worthington & Co.
