

J. W. Butler Paper Company,

216 AND 218 MONROE STREET,

CHICAGO,

My Friend George

Thanks for your article in Anti-Slavery March 11th. - Shame on the "Correspondent - who from Chicago and says etc." - I am connected with one of the largest houses in Chicago & live in next to the largest square. - It is a damnable lie that the best people come & uphold the Texas wrongs. - I have been unable to find a single one who does & ever one seems to feel the shame & disgrace of so heinous a act - That such acts can be possible in Christian America, it makes one wish to think of it. -

Hastily

J. H. Kimball

with a true name & I am not a Republican either.