March 26. 94

Dear Sir,

Dear Emma,

I have just returned from Capt. Fikes and I have the sad news to tell you that he died at 7-30 P.M. today - and the funeral will be at the same at 1:30 tomorrow and the same with in the 3 P.M. train for Vermont where he will be buried.
It is all so sudden that I feel amazed - it does not seem possible that we shall never see his kind face again - He has been so much to me in the office that he will feel his loss very sore -

We have seen a good deal of the fisher this winter the last since his attack nearly four years ago has been more irritable or irritable I should say more social and we have enjoyed him so much this winter - Mr. Fisher I did not see this morning for she was lying down but that I think she would be able to go with him tomorrow - dear woman what a sad time coming it will be - Write me soon - Love to you

Bessie
