

Corneent O. April 10, 1894.
Judge A. W. Furgue

Dear friend. Early in July last you called at my home and expressed a wish to the effect that I should send you some Willow cuttings, after my harvesting was completed.
This I should have done had not the ⁺ death become so severe that I felt sure that they would not live. This month would seem to be a suitable time to put them out - better than in late autumn.
Please state how many you need and the length and size you desire.
And I will try to get them for you at such a date as you may name.

I presume you have heard of the death of C. R. Goddard and Mrs E. L. Reynolds - Both are much missed in this community.
We three are all usually well and all had the pleasure of attending the Worlds Fair in August.
Our town is pretty dull and we all feel the effects of the Democrat "Blight". Those who voted for a change, find that they have had one - "bitt - a vengeance" - and I think will fall into line once more when the next election day comes around.

The girls join me in kind regards to yourself and family

Very truly yours

Henry Grant
