Dear Sir:—

Your favor of recent date is at hand. While we would be glad to commence the publication of the National Citizen at once we think that first of all you should consider your strength. We believe also with you that a greater success can be made of the enterprise at once by starting at the opening of the fall months. Meantime everything can be made ready to start it with a boom.

Believing that it will be for the best and wishing you a rapid increase in strength we remain

Yours very truly,

S. McGerald & Sons.
