

7635

"DUTY AND DESTINY."

"THERE IS NO JOY ALL SET APART FROM PAIN"—BOYLE O'REILLEY.

Anniversary Exercises Commemorative of the

LIFE AND SERVICES OF

Abraham Lincoln,

AND OF THE

First National Act of Emancipation,

PEOPLE'S CHURCH,

Columbus Avenue, corner of Berkeley St.,

Monday Evening, April 16, '94,

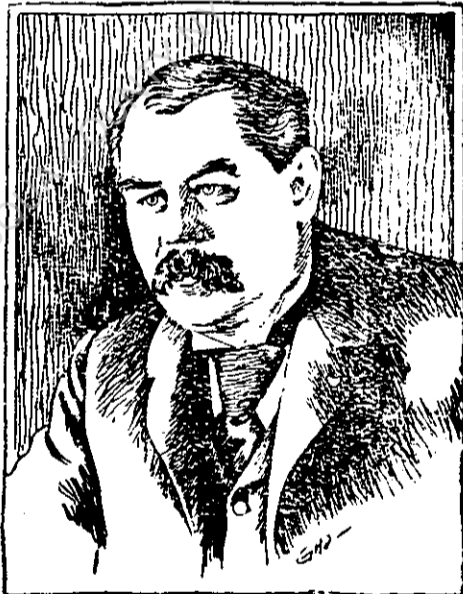

AT EIGHT O'CLOCK,

UNDER THE AUSPICES OF THE
JOHN BROWN LECTURE BUREAU.

Gov. Greenhalge will be present.

William Lloyd Garrison, Esq. will preside.

Other distinguished Citizens will occupy seats on the platform.

Order of Exercises.

Remarks by the presiding officer,	-	-	Mr. Garrison.
Organ Prelude,	-	-	Miss Richardson.
Tenor Solo,	-	-	Mr. Woodward.
Recitation,	-	-	Miss Nahar.
Lecture, "Duty and Destiny."	-	-	Judge Tourgee.
Tenor Solo,	-	-	Mr. Woodward.

The name, WM. LLOYD GARRISON, is everywhere a synonym for freedom and fraternity. JUDGE ALBION W. TOURGEE will be remembered as a valiant soldier during the war of the Rebellion, as a fearless and equitable judge during "Reconstruction," as a distinguished author, as an unyielding advocate and defender of the civil and political equality of American citizens. Miss Ednorah Nahar, the accomplished dramatic reader, Mr. Sydney Woodward, the gifted tenor soloist, and Miss Mamie E. Richardson, the talented instrumentalist, are known as admirable artists the country over, and need no introduction to a Boston audience.

GENERAL ADMISSION, 25c.

RESERVED SEATS 50c.

EXERCISES WILL BEGIN PROMPTLY. GO EARLY.