

The Current Literature Publishing Company,
52 Lafayette Place, New York.

April 28th, 1894.

Albion W. Tourgee Esq.,
Mayville-on-Chautauqua,
New York.

Dear Sir:-

Yours of the 25th has been received. I do not quite understand from it whether you would accept the offer of $50.00 for the story that you think might be cut down somewhat. If so, I shall be glad to have you send it to me, and the length of five or six thousand words would be best available for our use. In regard to the other stories, I might possibly use one of them at $75.00 including the drawings, provided of course, as you say, that the story is found suitable for our use. As a rule we have preferred to employ our own artists, but if your daughter has already illustrated some of your work, her drawings would no doubt be perfectly well adapted to our use.

Very truly yours,

A. S. S.
Ed. S. S.