

Ed. Express

J. W. Green <sup>Esq</sup>

Managing Ed., Express

Dear Sir:

I am to resume <sup>THE</sup> the "Byatunders' Notes" in the Enter Queen on Saturday next.

In my <sup>new</sup> arrangement with them I reserved the right to use the same ~~matter~~ letter, and the title, in a puffful ~~set~~ paper for a time at least, should I so desire.

I do need to trouble you with anything about its desirability in the Inter Ocean, further than to say that it was the result of the attempt of a very poor newspaper journal to establish a "cut-rate" with a writer whose work had been an element of its success.

I declined to accept <sup>the cut.</sup> The assumption means that they abandon the attempt as unprofitable, I suppose.

I have wondered whether you would not like to make some arrangements agent for a trial = Trip, of say three months, two excursions every Saturday. I do not know whether I should like it or find it advisable, and the same might be true with you.

As you are now, I have always avoided any direct work of any sort, having the impression that it is better business for a literary man to concentrate his effort, than to center it. Such a thing would be in the nature of an experiment with me.

If you feel inclined to make me an offer please let me hear from you so that I can duplicate the copy, on ~~Thurs.~~ Wednesday which has been is "printing day" for the Bylander and has been for more than five years. F. Gunn, Turby

---