

The Cosmopolitan Magazine.
Editorial Department.

May 2nd 1894

My dear Judge Towner

I have just consulted with Mr Walker in reference to the space to be given to the war articles, as the arrangement was made entirely through him. Five total mts of 5,000 words at 30,000 m all be unwise to exceed that limit. For a like reason, with your name on our cover for six months to come (I am glad to say), I decline the other MSS, with the exception of the personal pleasure they have given me. As an editor of your I am sure you will appreciate my reasons.

from the Chalanoocha Campaign is therefore to be included in the volume. This is also my own judgment. I think six articles is enough for any one subject, and that with other MSS in hand & ordered in War topics, it would