My dear Mrs. Longstre:-

Your just arrival. I shall be very glad to do all I can for your nephew. but I suppose the chances of employment are small. The best thing to do is for you to write Mr. Duncan as he is the one who makes all appointments. I will be glad to say any good word I can, and help the matter along. I sincerely wish I could be with you to help keep the Judge's birthday. I'll him I send congratulations, and wishes for many many more.

Very truly yours
E. R. White
