Judge A.W. Tourgee,
Mayville, N.Y.

Dear Sir:--

Would it be possible yet to furnish us with some copy for the tabular work in "The Story of a Thousand?" We are in a position to commence at once upon that part of it if agreeable to you.

Yours very truly,

S. McGerald & Sons.

We are pleased to see the éclat with which your candidacy is greeted by the Republican papers, and the significant silence of the Democrats. Success to you! We see, too, that Martinet is hopeful touching the NATIONAL CITIZEN. It seems to us
