

IMPORTERS, JOBBER AND RETAILERS OF DRY GOODS,
CARPETS, CURTAINS,
SILKS, LACES, GLOVES, GENTLEMEN'S FURNISHINGS,
CLOAKS, WRAPS, COSTUMES,
MILLINERY,
CORSETS, FANCY GOODS, ETC.

NEWCOMB, ENDICOTT & Co.,

190, 192, 194, 196, 198, 200

WOODWARD AVENUE.

Detroit, May 11 1894

Dear Mr. Sawyer

You must feel as if you were realizing the truth of the adage "It never rains, but it pours." I am really glad that the Bystander's votes are again being published in the Lake Ocean, and I congratulate you that your efforts are being recognized by your neighbors. Hope that you will receive the nomination for Congress.

Yours very respectfully
Wm. H. Anderson

P. S. Stowers and I wrote a book four years ago, and it will be placed on the market next week. He will send you a copy.