Boston, Mass., May 14, 1894.

Judge Albin W. Furgess,
Mayville-on-Chautauq, N.Y.

My dear Sir:

You will, I am sure, pardon me for neglecting to inform you that the "cut" was sent Mr. Raymond, Andover, N.Y., immediately on receipt of your letter of Apr. 19. Hope that the coming of your card this morning does not mean that it was not duly received.

That I have not long ago written you, acknowledging your letter and expressing to you our great indebtedness for the rare pleasure and prof- it afforded by your lecture here, has been due to one thing: the fact of my waiting for my associates in the bureau to contribute their full quota to the sinking fund, if I may call it, so that the balance of our debt to you might be wiped out. The delay among, but it must end shortly. I believe.

Very truly yours, Clement G. Morgan.
