

New Orleans, La

May 21 1894.

Hon. Albion W. Sargent

Mayville, N. Y.

My dear Judge: The papers reached me this morning under cover postmarked 19th inst. I think that I am indebted to your kind offices for this very prompt settlement of the difficulty. You may command my earnest services in your behalf whenever you please. There is nothing like having a friend at Court, or in New York.

Yours truly,
Jas. C. Walker.
