My dear Miss F. - I'll just leave you off this little note.
I'll tell you that our voyage has been most delightful - for often thought how much fun we would have if you had been here too. We expect to land there and sail back to the States tomorrow. It will be ^{the} all our first time once more - and I really feel certain of ones posting. There is a little party about 38 of the "Dutchman" and numerous other. The talk is interesting & well. It only had one day being that the meeting was our first work, one on and soon one was propaganda. I'll write at greater length in a week. - and hope I was remaining as before I left. I did not have a moment to spare from your letter - I'll write you - soon - I'll
