My dear Mrs. Curcell,
You have no doubt forgotten the little girl who once knew you in Brunswick, I mean Annie Mae Hahn. Just now I am trying to hear all I can of Chattanooga as a place where I can go to learn the best methods for teaching.

English literature.

There is an opening for me at a private Latin school here and this has rather been a specialty with me, but I want to study the latest methods of instructing in instruction. I am told that special rates are made both for travel and while studying in Chattanooga.

Could you get for me all the information possible on the subject?

Kindly let me know too when the cases begin and if not too much trouble the books used.

My dear Father died just a month ago. He had been a great sufferer from Bright's disease for more than a year,
we were not unprepared for his death,
yet it was a great shock to us all.
I am much to be remembered to Judge Force & your daughter & give me my kindest regards to yourself.

Yours respectfully,
Amie Mac Farlan
