Judge Albion W. Tourgee,
Mayville, N. Y.

Dear Sir; It is, of course, a small matter to you that a young man away out in this country should be impelled to thank you, ^{and} acknowledge his hearty sympathy with ^{and} large benefit derived from your "Notes".

However, tho comparatively young, as I have grown older I have discovered the strong need for more expression of sympathetic sentiment.

I believe you are doing God, ^{and} your country, ^{and} humanity, service, ^{and} I want you to know it, ^{and} bid you God speed. We need a multitude of men like you, with large brain ^{and} heart ^{and} patriotism. Please accept my hearty esteem.

Most Respectfully Yours,

W. W. Manley.
