

To

A. W. Ingue
My Dear Sir

(98-B.)
Sept. 1884.)

AMERICAN EXPRESS COMPANY,

Woodstock, Ill.

July 3

189

Thank you for the seeds of Earth & such I consider you - The last two Bystanders gave me great satisfaction, as did your article in the "Evening Journal" Jameson by. Oh that all unbiased minds the nation would read these articles & listen to the voice of conscience - Equal rights

To

(98-B.
Sept. 1884.)

AMERICAN EXPRESS COMPANY,

Woodstock, Ills.,

189

Providence - Several among the unities of the friends of temperance to straighten out this matter - The Lord reigns, although his hand is now distinctly seen at present - but we hope for the best.

Sincerely yours
J. A. Duffell