Mrs. A. W. Fougie
Madam,

The sample copy of Button's Lure is at hand, and I have looked it over carefully, and have come to this conclusion, that I cannot sell the book for $2.00, and hence will return this copy to you upon my first opportunity.
The books that I had lost year, in Sepia Wash, it seems to me were equally as good and retailed for $1.50 each. I could sell some at that price, although it seems to be an age for purchasing books of a cheaper grade. At $1.50 I think it would sell, on account of the local interest in the story, I cannot quite understand why the the price has been advanced, when the tendency seems to be toward lowering the price of all publications.

I thank you for your kindness in sending me the sample copy for inspection, and in case I have any call for the book I will give them the price, and order from you as wanted.

Yours Sincerely
