

Cleveland Ohio July 30 1894.

My dear Madame

I have your favor of the 28th and also the package of books and am the balance of the invoice I enclose herewith my check for $16.25 as I find I am short of "Bricks without Straws".
My wife informs me that with the hope of enlightening the public mind she contributed (as she claims with my approval) that volume to the circulating library of our Episcopal Church here. If so I hope it has been read. So you will please forward Brock with the rest of our of print reserve the surplus to apply on something to come. I also take this opportunity to thank you and your husband for the renewal of your kind invitation to visit you. I have promised Mrs R. that in the latter part of August I will take her to Lakeview for a few days and during that time will avail ourselves of the privilege afforded by the Judges letter. I regret that he feels he cannot return my visit but I am sure this will not

3
prevent you from so honoring us after you have met Mrs R whom I know you will like.

You may say to the Lady that I agree there were many things we ought to have talked about that were never mentioned and were realized that, more than I do, & now that we have renewed our old acquaintance I hope that we may meet more frequently not to fight "our battles over again" but that I may have the pleasure of learning that which cannot be demonstrated by Mathematical Science nor derived so well from the reading of books.

My kindest regards to your Sister and daughter and believe me

Yours Most Sincerely
A. M. Robbing
