

side to begin with? No all such ice warmer gatherings.
Believe me
most sincerely yr.
Mansfield, S. Utte
6 August 1894.
Tangie's
It was very pleasant to see your writing once more yesterday morn-ning for I have often thought of you and hoped that all was well & strange to say I had occasion yesterday to address a little pamphlet to the Judge which I thought would interest which you said you knew. We are afraid that hoped would come out the important part of the beginning of the year the paper you sent has. It will be a much interesting untraced fact then citing one to us all was only 1 part of it. I hope will be ready in a no mark to indicate time for I was. But why you sent it & the summer has been a wonder why it came, very busy are for perhaps some time we have are for you will write and say all at home and tell me. We are looking until the 1st of September forward to the new book when one of them goes to Germany for a year.

Life seems made up of separations at present and I feel them very hard to bear. I wonder what you think of our anti-Lyckian committee headed by the Duke of Argyll. Our nation seems just beginning to realize that such a state of things exists. Do you know Cable and Boyce think well of his work.
Was he not on the wrong