My dear Judge:

When we were hoping for a favorable reply to our invitation of a fortnight ago, some of our kin - Judge Sage and wife of Cicamote, arrived on the scene so that we were compelled to withdraw our invitation as to stopping over night. We are trying to recover with added emphasis our invitation for the day - any day. Judge Sage is a good fellow, his wife is a better one, and I am sure that we could have a good time.

I sore that the old jail wont have the prisoners any longer. Wish they would all get out.

Kindest regards to them and their family.

Sincerely Yours

C. J. Johnson.
