Lakewood N.Y. Aug 13/94.

My dear Judge:

Yours of 9th just at hand. We are heartily sorry to hear of the poor time you have been having. No apologies are necessary. The best that we can agree to is that you are to dine with us, yourself Mrs. Frazier, daughter and sister - the more the better. Let us know the day so that we may be at home. Judge Sage who was compelled to run back to Cincinnati will be here next Friday - 17th - and I think you would enjoy meeting each other. Let come any day so that you can. If you set a day and the weather should be bad or other hindering cause start hesitate to change it: we should dine at the Strawberry Inn, close by our College, where we take more or less of our meals

According to our convenience, so that we may be as good as certain, the best day being the one that we shall have the pleasure of welcoming you.

Trusting that this may find you all very much better.

Sincerely & Cordially Yours

E. J. Ferriss
