PHILADELPHIA August 16, 1894.

Hon. Albion W. Tourgee,

Mayeville, N. Y.

MY dear Sir and Brother, --- Will you allow me in this way to remind you of your promise to furnish to us an article, consisting of about three thousand words, on Dr. W. B. Johnson as a Public Man. We are ready for that article any at any time when you may send it. We hope to begin to put the matter for the Memoir in the hands of the compositor not far from September first, and to have the work out early in the autumn.

We shall be very much indebted to you indeed if you can at once send us the article promised.

Very sincerely yours,

Philip L. Jones
