

7986

39 Court St., Boston, Mass.,
Aug. 22, 1894.

Dear Sir:—

You are earnestly and urgently asked to accept a platform seat at the Mass-meeting in Faneuil Hall, Wednesday evening, August 29th, 1894, at 7.30 o'clock, held under the auspices of the National League of Boston, to protest against the crime of lynching in America.

Among the speakers, there will be Messrs. Moncure D. Conway, Edwin G. Walker, William Lloyd Garrison, Wm. E. B. Du Bois, Thomas Riley, Emory T. Morris, Robert T. Teamoh, Rev. Dr. A. A. Miner, and Rev. Dr. D. P. Roberts.

Rev. Dr. Edward Everett Hale, who cannot be present, writes: "Say in your paper, and to any one who cares, that I think it quite time that public attention should be seriously given to these outrages. The character of the Nation is affected by them. It is idle to say that they are the work of irresponsible people, so long as those people are not sought for, tried, and punished"

The meeting should be stirring, and expressive of the best and truest American sentiment on this question. Be good enough to accept our invitation.

Respectfully yours,
For the Committee of Arrangments,
Edward E. Brown, Chairman,
Clement G. Morgan, Sec'y.

R. S. V. P.