My dear Nieces,

It is so long since we heard from you, I must write again & inquire after you, I do hope you've all been well this summer, though I feel anxious to know the two, have been well, Jones health better so far, than usual in summer, It has been so cool & pleasant until near the end of Aug, then was a hot wave, lasting four or five days, since then, it is delightfully cool & comfortable,

Edgars folks are spending the summer in San F., E. took a furnished house in Sausalito in June, for four months, as Irene obliged him to be there, he wanted them there two, he intends to quit the business in a year or so, when he can be home at his leisure when he wishes, he finds the worry & responsibility of the business too much for him

Robin is now at a boys school at Belmont, Edgar writes they visited him last week, found him happy & contented, he had then been there a month, said he had not been homesick one minute, he was advanced to a class of boys a year older than himself, & is ambitious to keep up with them, Edgar is much pleased with the management of the school,

It will be a lonely homecoming though, without him, I know how greatly I shall miss him,

I am no doubt you've heard the sad news from Toronto, of the death of Maggie Stewart Wallace, when her sister Annie Harris was here in the spring, she told of Maggies delicate health, & the intended trip to Scotland, the sad news was a great shock to them,

Have you heard of the wonderful treatment Sam Harris has been having in New York for Bright's disease, It will be a miracle almost, if he is thoroughly cured,

When they left here, they expected to return to Pasadena for next winter, perhaps now, they will not find it necessary,

We hear of the Grimsby friends occasionally, but have had no letters for a long time, since I wrote you last, had a letter from Eliza, she was well, & living at Mr Bennetts, superintending his home & the care of his children, her eldest boys are married, she only has Ernest with her, I think from the tone of her letter, that she is very well contented,

Now, about yourselves, how is Judge Heath this summer? how & where is Sadie? & how are your two selves?

Please don't forget to answer my questions very soon, as we feel anxious

It is months & months, since we've heard a word from Augusta & Hattie

We are having a quiet, easy time of it, this summer, not much to do & nobody to bother us, & we rather enjoy it, Tell Lodie Miss Gettinheart is home from Europe after her long, pleasant there; Jane joins me in love to her, Angie, & all of you, Lovingly Yours
