Wallace, Kan. Sept. 6th, 1894.

Judge A. W. Longer
Mayville, N. Y.

Dear Sir:— I am a very zealous Republican
My husband has voted the R. ticket for thirty years.
We have four sons — only one old enough to vote — but all of whom will, by and by, vote the same. I am not a W. C.
It would entail heavy burdens of responsibility in addition to those which are already too onerous, and from what I have seen of its workings I judge it will be a failure as far as moral reforms are concerned. I have been an interested reader of "The Bystander's Notes," also Sir's "Letter to the President" and conclude that both were written by the same facile pen. Being an admirer of "The Bystander's Notes" and believing that they have accomplished much for the good of a down trodden race — and a good many other people also — I desire very much to know if Sir. and The Bystander be not one and the same. If I have presumed too far in making a request of a stranger I beg pardon. If you will kindly grant me the desired information you will greatly oblige

A. Friend.

Mrs. F. J. Backus.
