At home -

Dear Aunt Emma.

I might on my way home I stopped to see my neighbor who is a Soldier at Camp Upton, about two years. I received a telegraph for me to come at once my name. and I could not understand it, for me to come. I wanted me. I will be home Thursday to stay with my wife and baby. Address is J. T. Calloway 19 Co Base Hosp. Camp Upton I hope you are all and that there will be no danger in consigning Baker to him. He is a man of considerable wealth - and one of the Select Commission Men in Chicago. He could not then plead a temporary absence & slip it - and I sincerely hope that it may help him something.

Emma has yesterday & this is no news. It is damp and chilly & night - and this morning the Land quite a heavy frost. I will not keep & write any more - for I am exceedingly tired.

Nibbie Hall.

Love.
