Dear Mrs. Jaques

Your letter makes me shudder. For four months I have been engaged almost day and night trying to construct the new Cosmopolitan building in time to get in by the expiration of our New York rental. During that time personal letters have piled up on my desk until I fear I have not a friend left. I have had the worst to do in the dull season with a constantly overdrawn bank account to add to my other worries and so you will I am sure be good enough to forgive my seeming inattention I am very grateful to you for the little column. With kind regards to Judge Tourgee and your daughter

Yours faithfully
