The Hon. A. W. Tourgee,
Mayville, N.Y.,

Dear Sir:--

We send herewith proofs of all pages except titlepage.

That we will send early tomorrow morning. These pages which we send have had but one reading. They will be thoroughly revised while we wait for their return.

Please note particularly the names under cuts, and especially name of Cumings.
Should that have more than one m?

Hastily,

McGerald.

Later:--

As I send this proof of the titlepage, I see some things wherein I think it might be bettered, but haven't time to have the changes made.

Wouldn't it be better to take out the ornaments before and after "prepared for", and to use the same style type (only smaller) for "Survivors' Association" as for "105th Regiment," etc.? Do you think the "Held at Youngstown" line too heavy, or would it be better in different style?

"The Muster-In" I can put in caps of the Legend type if you prefer.

For the border, would you prefer a simple mitred border of a single line, or of two parallel lines of equal heaviness?
